

Aircraft Pre-Flight Inside and Out

This seminar will try to cover all the necessary items of your aircraft pre-flight from inside to outside. Where to start? Where to look? What to look for? Keep in mind, what you do on the ground before a flight can have benefits or grave consequences once your in the air. The importance of a good and thorough pre-flight cannot be stressed enough, for you and your passenger's safety. Please pre-register for this event and bring a friend with all your questions!

Directions: Please see the map link for directions, seminar will be held on the first floor at the Fixed Base Operator's facility.
